5. Last morning, while I was doing my homework, Angela called me. She said, she was calling me on her cell phone from her English classroom. I asked her, if she was waiting for class, but she said that the lecturer was at the front of the hall lecturing while she was talking to me. I could not believe, she was making a phone call during the lecture. I asked, what was going on.
 She said her English lecturer was so boring that several of students were actually sleeping in class. Some of the students were talking about their plans for the weekend and the student next to her was drawing a picture.
